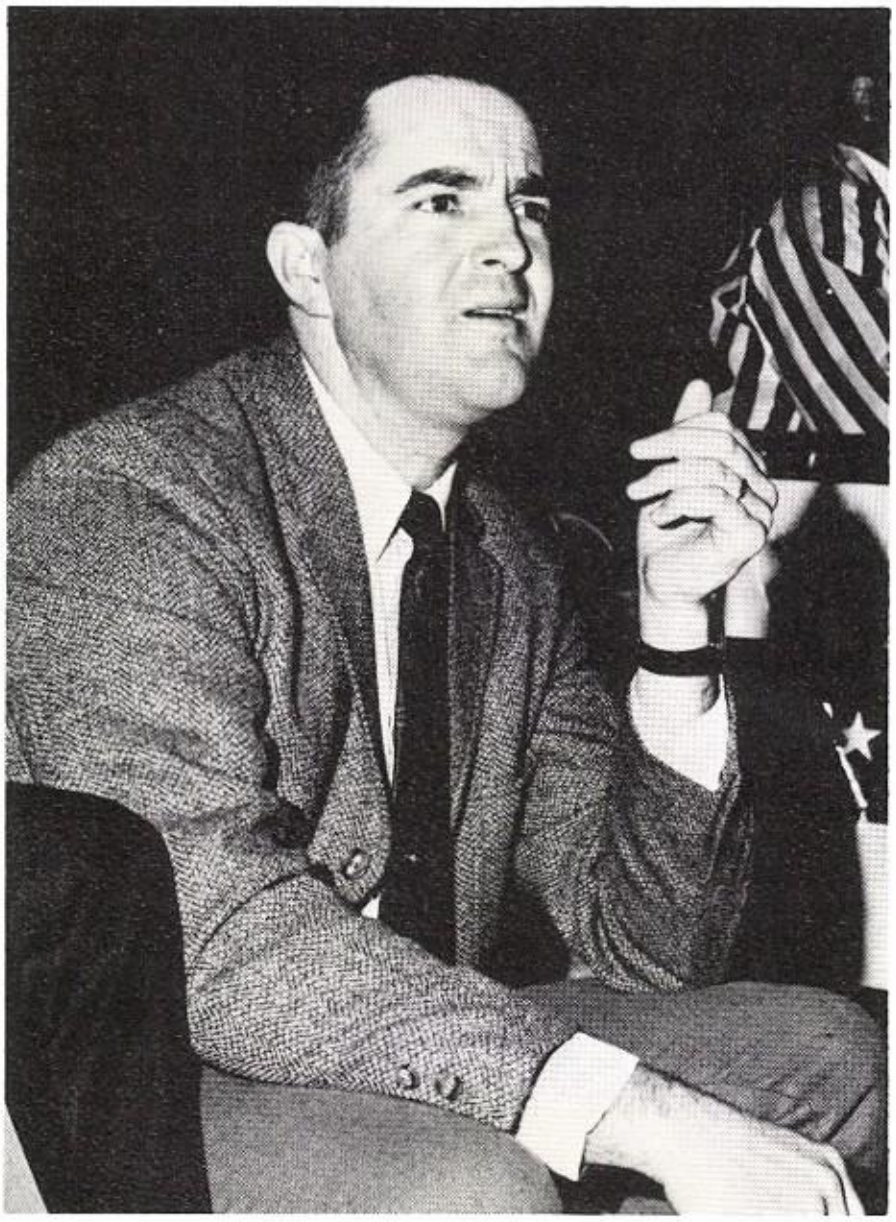
Dedication



Students welcome the sound of his whistle and his familiar urgings from the sidelines because they know that these belong to a man who had truly dedicated himself to the athletic program at G.H.S. During the past nine years, he, along with his winning team, have compiled an impressive record, thereby gaining for the Greenbrier High School a place of honor and prestige among Arkansas basketball teams.

Ever since 1960, when he joined the faculty at Greenbrier, his name has been synonymous with outstanding basketball teams. As early as 1960, he and his boys were able to advance to the semifinals of the State Tournament, and in 1963 he shared the honors with his Junior Basketball Team, as they took home the First Place trophy in the State Tournament. As the years passed, his reputation as the coach of a winning team grew, as Greenbrier advanced to the State Tournament year after year, taking home top honors as State Champions in 1964-65 and again in 1965-66. In 1967 and 1968 it seemed as if Greenbrier would again receive the top accolade, only to lose it in the final games. In 1969 he and his teams again carried on the Greenbrier winning tradition by winning the SCA Invitational Tournament for the fifth year out of six.

Besides gaining the admiration of every member of the faculty, administration, and students, he has gained a revered place among outstanding men in his profession. Being elected All-Star Coach in 1965 and chosen Third Vice-President of the Arkansas High School Coaches Association is proof enough of the respect he is paid by other coaches.

He is the object of such respect and admiration not only because of his dedication to the school's athletic program, but also because of his humility, his interest in the individual, and his willingness to be satisfied only with the best. In light of his dedication and persistent striving toward a standard of excellence, the PANTHER staff takes great pride in dedicating the 1969 annual to Coach Doyce Winningham.

ADMINISTRATION

Administration and Faculty

Mr. Bill Abernathy

Superintendent

The difference between a good school like Greenbrier and a mediocre school is its superintendent. Greenbrier is fortunate this year in having Mr. Bill Abernathy as its superintendent. Mr. Abernathy has done much this year in promoting school spirit as well as the educational side of school. To him, school is a very serious business and should be treated as such, and Mr. Abernathy has done a great deal to see that each student has the opportunity to receive the best education that Greenbrier has to offer.

School Board

Standing: E.F. McMillen, Sec.; Marvin Cantrell, Pres. Seated: Preston Kelso, T.D. Day, Gene Dear.

High School Principal

Launched with a Bang! That's the only way to describe the 1968-69 school year. Thanks to the administrative efficiency, that typical "first day of school" confusion was eliminated. Long lines of disappointed students mobbing the office to have their schedule changed and the tugging of misplaced students is a thing of the past now. Because of the hard work put into the arranging of schedules by Mr. Charles Henson, almost all the students were pleased with their schedules.

Mr. Charles Henson

Grade School Principal

An important asset to the Greenbrier administration is Mrs. Dean Martin. She keeps the grade school running efficiently through long hours of planning and dedication to immediate tasks. A recent example of her untiring devotion to better educational facilities is the setting up of an Education Television system in grades one and two. Mrs. Martin's success can perhaps be attributed to her philosophy that each child is an individual. Because of the fact that each grade school student is important to her, she brings quality education to each of them.

Office Workers

What would an office be without efficient office workers? Few of us realize the work that Mrs. Williams and each of these girls put into our office every day. Without them, we'd all be lost, for they contribute a very big part in keeping our school running so smoothly. We appreciate very much our office staff for contributing so much to the management of our school.

Homecoming 1968-69

The 1968-69 Homecoming game will long be remembered. It was the night all Greenbrier was waiting to see. For on this night the mighty Panthers met one of their toughest opponents of the entire season--the Scott Boll Weevils. It was also the night when the new Homecoming Queen was crowned. Miss Sherry Nixon, a Senior, was crowned in a pregame ceremony by Junior Spears and Jerel Jones, captains of the Panthers. Debbie Wilcox carried the flowers and crown, which were presented to the Queen. Mary Jane Jennings, the Senior Maid, was escorted by Jimmy Everett. Linda Harrington, the Junior Maid, was escorted by Doug Hodges, and Jeannie Hall, the Sophomore Maid, was escorted by Johnny Day.

The Conway High School Band boosted the Panthers' spirit by accompanying the Cheerleaders with rhythmic yells and presenting an entertaining half-time performance.

The Homecoming spirit was promoted all during school that day. A pep assembly was held which proved to the Panthers that the school was behind them all the way. The Student Council sold Panther booster ribbons, inscribed with the slogan, "Scratch Scott."

All in all (cold weather not included) this 1968-69 Homecoming was outstanding. For its success much credit belongs to Mrs. Atkeison and Mrs. Phillips, Senior sponsors; Coach Guthrie, and the Cheerleaders.

Student Council Promotes Leadership

Representing student opinions, promoting school spirit, and providing a bond between faculty and students-these are the perennial challenges which confront a school's governing body. GHS's Student Council officers and representatives faced these objectives with zeal and enthusiasm. Among the Council's major projects this year were the highly successful salesmanship in selling Christmas cards, sweatshirts, and pennants, profits from which the Council used to have a sidewalk built down to the lunchroom. The Student Council was also responsible for the many assemblies we had this year. All the while, they were putting to practice democratic practices in their many endeavors throughout the year, and building leadership qualities within its membership.

Senior High Beta Club

The purpose of the Greenbrier Beta Clubs is to promote scholarship, leadership, and good citizenship among the student body. The members are chosen for their worthy character, good mentality, creditable achievement, and commendable attitudes. It is a leadership and service organization for American High School and Junior High School students. The main objectives of the Beta Club are to promote the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership. Membership in the Beta Clubs designate the students as worthy of special recognition. This makes the Beta Club one of the most respected clubs on campus.

Mrs. Carolyn Steward is the Junior High Beta Club sponsor, and Mr. Edward Freyaldenhoven is the Senior Beta Club sponsor.

FFA Looks Forward to 1969

The FFA is a National organization composed of boys between the ages of 14-18 with one common bond.

They hold that the future of the world is in the production of educated farmers. This is done through classes of vocational agriculture in which they are taught effective methods of production.

The Greenbrier FFA chapter repeatedly brings home honors on both the local and state level.

The FFA has worked hard by giving of their time and effort in such projects as building a sidewalk to the lunchroom and building the booths for the Halloween Carnival.

Future Home Makers of America is the National Organization designed for youth studying homemaking in high schools of the United States and territories. Local programs of work are adapted from the national and state programs yearly.

This year our objective is: To participate actively in projects for family, community, and world improvement.

1968-69 program of work emphasizes CITIZENSHIP CHALLENGES YOU. Sub-projects on jobs, careers, good health, leisure time and make your money behave will be given monthly emphasis. Our state wide project is Beautification.

Our local chapter will use the honor point system and have the Rose Bud Queen award again.

Sing Along With GHS's Glee Club

The Glee Club has played a big part in the entertainment world of Greenbrier. Glee Club members have provided entertainment for the Panther Queen Contest and various school assemblies.

The big event for the Glee Club the first semester was presenting a Christmas program. During the Spring semester, the annual spring concert was presented.

Mrs. Beryle Dickens is the Glee Club director.

Librarians Help to Harmonize Our Studies

The Library Club for 1968-69 is a small, hardworking organization interested in helping the other students of GHS develop an interest in reading as well as becoming more proficient in the use of the library.

The student librarians have helped students find books they need either for reference or for pleasure. They also assist in checking out books and putting them back on the shelves after the books have been checked in.

Mrs. Betty McAdoo is the Library Club sponsor.

With a sure eye for the who, what, when, where, why, and how of school activities, the Panther Scream Staff produced a monthly paper that has become a true newsheet. It has covered pictorially and in story form the school events with accuracy and color. Jokes for spice, sports for fun, and editorials for thought have united and directed the student body thinking.

It Was All Worth While

It's D-Day! Midnight oil burns in the annual room as the staff puts the last minute touches on The Panther. D-Day is deadline day and no matter how hard you try to stop the clock, or turn back the pages of the calendar, it somehow arrives.

You suffer mortal wounds when copy won't count or a picture goes bad. You suggest surrender when a page is missing, but somehow as a team you struggle through last minute catastrophes. You try not to remember the fatigue and heartbreaks, but instead the close friendships you've made and the joy of being a part of something that will last. As you wrap up the final copy and envision bombs bursting at the arrival of the 1969 Panther, you assure yourself that it was all worth while.

Panthers finish with an impressive 5-3-1 season

The Greenbrier Panthers, picked as preseason underdogs, came roaring up to Class B Conference contenders by walking away with a 12-8 victory over preseason Conference favorite Grady in the first game of their second season. Coach Guthrie's Panthers continued to prove that they were to be reckoned with by adding Gould to their win column with a 14-13 score. Even though the score board indicated that Greenbrier had won their third game with Cross County 13-6, they lost one of their key backs for the rest of the season due to injuries. Hazen dealt the Panthers their first defeat. Going into the game without the services of Jerry Roberts, the Panthers were a bit shaky. They were about to give good account of themselves when Captain Junior Spears, another key running back, had to leave the game due to injuries. The Panthers were never able to regain the poise they had shown in previous games, and ended up with a somewhat disputed 8-7 loss.

The Panthers were on the winning trail again, and defeated Lake Hamilton 14-7. The next game was to be played against Vilonia, a team that was also in their second year of football and had not won a game during the current season. Due to the long standing rivalry, built up in basketball, between the two schools, it was no surprise to the Panthers to find Vilonia pointing toward a win over Greenbrier. By the end of the first period, it was apparent that Vilonia was playing their best game of the season. Due to the outstanding efforts of several first-year varsity players, Greenbrier was able to take home a 13-0 victory.

The game with Scott was our Homecoming game. Too many costly fumbles and broken plays cost the Panthers the game by a score of 24-2. Coach Guthrie was not able to convince the young squad that last week's game was history, and that the next game with Oak Grove was the game they should be concerned about. The Panthers went on the field pretty much convinced that they would lose the game; and they did, by a score of 34-0. This made their third loss of the season. By the time the final game with Marshall rolled around, the coaching staff had convinced the Panthers that they could play better football than they had in the last two games. Consequently, they played Marshall a 0-0 tie. But for a few bad breaks, the Panthers could have won the game. The season's record was five wins, three losses, and one tie.

The Panther football team and student body are very proud of their new head football coach, Richard Guthrie, and assistant coach, Doyce Winningham, and feel that they did an outstanding job during the current season. We look forward to even better things next year.

Junior Football

Our Junior boys put up a good fight, although they didn't win many games. Still, they acquired the training and the experience so valuable to a GOOD football team. Maybe next year, with this year behind them, they can bring many victories to Greenbrier and put the name of their team on top, where any Greenbrier team should be.

"Ah, this is not the end, it is not even the beginning of the end; but it is perhaps the end of the beginning."

--Sir Winston Churchill

It all began about a year ago when the PANTHER staff set out with enthusiasm and unlimited ideas to produce the 1969 model of the PANTHER. As time went on, deadlines began popping up right and left; hundreds of pictures had to be labeled and sorted, and layouts had to be planned for every page. We grew weary of the long hours of gruelling work, fatigue, and heartbreak when a picture didn't come in or a layout wouldn't fit. We even suggested giving up when a picture was missing. And we had our bad days--Vicki and Pat arguing over spelling, Bettizelle losing her composure after dropping a stack of alphabetized pictures, and Sherry trying to divide her time between the Paper Staff and yet still have time to do much of the typing for the annual. But somehow we stayed with it and managed to survive the disasters.

Within this book is a retrospective record of a single year at G.H.S. We have attempted to mirror the distinctions of each class--from the uneasy zeal of seventh graders to the cocky self-assurance of seniors. We have changed the format a little from that of previous books, adding a little more of the written word, and giving more pictorial coverage to candid shots of classes and events.

We want to especially thank Mrs. Linda Atkeison, our annual advisor, and Mrs. Virginia Phillips, our co-sponsor, for their guidance and help in keeping us out of trouble. The other faculty members are deserving of our praise, for without their patience with us, we could not have succeeded.

We have tried to capture the potpourri of experiences, which make school days such a memorable time of life. But in a larger sense, the reality of Greenbrier School cannot be defined with words and pictures; it can only be approximated. The true reality lies within each individual student.
